PRESENTS
A FILM SCREENING OF

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 10, 2012 AT 5PM

6500 W. DRY CREEK PARKWAY
NIWOT, CO 80503
(303) 652-0130

This moving and humorous documentary follows six teenagers who, like the “average American child,” spend five to fifteen hours a day behind screens. PLAY AGAIN unplugs these teens and takes them on their first wilderness adventure – no electricity, no cell phone coverage, no virtual reality.

Through the voices of children and leading experts including journalist Richard Louv, sociologist Juliet Schor, environmental writer Bill McKibben, educators Diane Levin and Nancy Carlsson-Paige, neuroscientist Gary Small, parks advocate Charles Jordan, and geneticist David Suzuki, PLAY AGAIN investigates the consequences of a childhood removed from nature and encourages action for a sustainable future.

The film screening is a free event, open to the public, for ages 18 and over. RSVP requested.
Light refreshments will be served and a group discussion will be held after the film.
